After having spoken with a secretary, and instead of replying today to Your answering machine, for all legal intents and purposes,

[Name],

Having read Your publication as of today, one which misleads the reader into believing that Monaco were to have a Minister of Justice, I humbly ask You to make another press release in emergency. Monaco has no minister of justice whatsoever, and if it had, said minister could never take orders but from an elected prime minister, or from one that would be nominated by a president of a Monegasque republic that hardly exists.

It is moreover completely false to state that the interested party Philippe NARMINO would have climbed the judicial hierarchy within his career in Monaco. On the contrary, he has never set a foot in any appeals court, before taking on the current position, one which is in breach with European law, a position acquired despite the French Gendarmerie reports on said individual.

Considering that I undersigned, have just filed a criminal complaint under article 137 of the Monegasque Criminal Code against named Philippe Narmino, for usurpation of title, since Monaco has no minister of Justice; and that said complaint is anterior to the [French] presidential decree;

In light of Monaco's obligations towards the Council of Europe and the impossibility for any a minister of justice to respond directly under a chief of State, let alone a not elected one;

Considering the recent statements of H.S.H. the Sovereign Prince Albert II of Monaco pursuant to the importance of not having any minister of justice, regardless of the text being written by or for Narmino himself, as confirms the Palace, <http://www.monacohebdo.mc/8125-la-legitimite-de-la-dsj-estincontestable>, how do You explain this title of minister of Justice?

All the police reports and / or the like or that of gendarmerie have been communicated to the Administrative Supreme Court of the Kingdom of Sweden (an Administrative Court one which is not only a "consultative" façade as Monaco's) and were communicated on last 5th of March, after my complaint against Narmino, one which it fell – in this matter - upon current highest in rank and fourth Prosecutor General Mr. Jean-Pierre DRENO.

Through this very day, I demanded explanations from the Swedish ambassador to the Kingdom of Sweden, Mr. Gunnar LUND, being the superior of Monegasque Crown Councillor Patricia Husson, whose Swedish consular title regarding Sweden remains to be established. Said ambassador has recently been summoned to answer me before mid day, next Wednesday [28 March 2012].

Considering the emergency of the present matters, I found it wise writing You on this very day of the publication.

In order for my not having to bother Mr. the President of France's Administrative Supreme Court, Safe for any error above this line, and considering the emergency,

Yours sincerely,

David Fristedt

The challenged publication : <http://www.achm.mc/fr/evenements/126-8-mars-2012-remise-de-lalegion-dhonneur-francaise-au-directeur-des-services-judiciaires-monegasques.html> and <http://www.conseil-etat.fr/node.php?articleid=2616>

This e-mail contained David Fristedt's filed criminal complaint dated the 7th of December 2011 against Philippe Narmino (attached document nr HFD1 and HFD1 bis [English version] within the abovementioned file before the administrative Supreme Court of the Kingdom of Sweden), dated 7th of December 2011, of which here is an extract:

“I also file a criminal complaint against the already incriminated Philippe Narmino, for having acted as a minister of justice within the contact with a Ministry of Justice of a foreign country, a ministry of which the head is Prime Minister.”

The letter ends as follows:

“Done in emergency, Kingdom of Sweden, on the 7th of December 2011, and sent by fax as a preamble of what shall be sent to You LR/AR, with request for Your [Jean-Pierre DRENO] imminent action consisting in putting an end to the international public disorders.”
