

REPORT ON PHILIPPE NARMINO, MAGISTRATE

The president of the Court [of first instance] Philippe NARMINO leads a personal life unworthy that of a magistrate (1). His professional activities are tainted by iniquitous judgements and his relations are highly open to criticism (2). His lavish lifestyle since ages ago is supported by friends (3). Finally, his management of the Monegasque Red Cross is said to be explosive (4).

1. A personal life unworthy that of a magistrate.

The relations within Mr Philippe NARMINO's couple are, evidently, of the most distended. As some assert, would his wife have a problem with what many another knows: his homosexuality?

Indeed, since some twenty years, Mr NARMINO has had a love affair with xxxxxxxx xxxxxxxx son of the famous show biz agent of the sixties. Their relation grew in Monaco where xxxxxxxx often stayed. The latter currently lives in Paris, without further detail.

What more is, Mr NARMINO fell in love in 2005 with an Englishman, younger than he, and living in Monaco. However, his name has not yet been retrieved.

Moreover and in particular, the homosexuality of this magistrate is well known in the Principality, but also in the neighboring [French] counties, since he assiduously spends time with a bunch of depraved nudists, on the Plage des [beach of] Pissarelles [<http://www.plagesmed.fr/plages/alpes-maritimes/cap-dail/pissarelles-plage.html>] and on that of the Cap-Estel in Cap d'Ail where he often mores his boat.

Among these perverts, a police constable who is a regular at the Bains Douches in Nice, xxxxxxxx xxxxxx. This guy does not hide the protection that the magistrate gives him, going even as far as to let people know that he has quite some information on him. Besides, the many interventions made by the president NARMINO on behalf of his little "protégé" xxxxxxxx are known by many police officers, with all the deductions and gossip that comes with it...

More seriously, the French special services know that they have very strong means of pressure on the President NARMINO due to his perverse tendencies. Indeed, precise information has been communicated about him by the Gendarmerie Maritime de Toulon, to the D.S.P.D., La Direction de la Protection et de la Sécurité de la Défense [the Direction of Protection, and of Defense Security]. It is therefore unthinkable that nor the R.G., les Renseignements Généraux [French Domestic Secret Service], nor the D.G.S.E., la Direction Générale des Services Extérieurs [French Foreign Secret Service] would be unaware and thus not seized in turn.

The homosexual viewings of Mr NARMINO have been recorded, since 1999, by the Gendarmerie Maritime de Toulon which boat is based in Nice. As a result, and ever since, the sexual perversions of this magistrate are well-known by the Palais de Justice in Nice, but also by the Police and Gendarmerie of the Alpes-Maritimes.

2. A professional activity tainted by iniquitous judgements and relations highly open to criticism.

Mr NARMINO, without being a very fine lawyer, is a President of the Court [of first instance] who knows his job and who is well thought of by the administrative staff of the Judicial Services.

Moreover, he is known for not working much. Indeed, compared to many colleagues of the Palais [de Justice], he is seldom seen in his office before 9 am; he takes his time for luncheons; he rarely leaves late in the evening and seldom brings a file home in order to move forward within his work.

What more is, on Tuesday afternoons, officially booked for his activities within the Red Cross, he is often seen on the tennis courts, a sport that he practices even on other half-days of the weeks.

Moreover, all magistrates know that he knows, out of convenience, how to get rid of thorny issues, giving such files to his colleagues. For example, it turns out that the recent departure of his henchman [REDACTED] (1) ought to be a real problem for him. It is notably through his means that he has managed, behind the scenes, so to speak, to settle many a file to the flagrant dismay of some answerable, something that has caused grave damage to the Justice in the Principality.

Besides, Mr NARMINO's relations with the former Chief Prosecutor [REDACTED] (2) and with the President [REDACTED] (3) have facilitated many a file to his own convenience. This was not [?] the case with the former Chief Prosecutor Daniel SERDET, despite their sometimes seemingly distant relations.

The two links between all these magistrates? The Grand Loge de France and a [big] boss: Mr [REDACTED] (4). Hence the tight relations between Mr NARMINO and [REDACTED] (5), the Government's Councillor.

The magistrates of the "[REDACTED] (4) clan" regularly meet for dining out. It follows that they are regularly seen in many a grand restaurant in Alpes Maritimes and in Var.

The label « [REDACTED] clan » (4) emerged during the infamous judicial affair of the Casino lenders [prêteurs], in the years 1997-1998. Vast amounts of money had been diverted, thanks to the former director of games and National Councillor [REDACTED] (5), under the guidance of M. [REDACTED] (4). However, only minor prosecutions were made by the Chief Prosecutor [REDACTED] (6). And this affair resulted in ridiculous sentences, thanks to Mr NARMINO's complicity.

The latter has also seriously compromised himself whilst taking scandalous measures against two sisters of his intimate friend Mr [REDACTED] (7). These were undertaken in the legal battle between him and his sisters in a matter of costs for their mother's guardianship. A sordid procedure that has shocked many magistrates, and within which he furthermore was unsuccessful in finding any colleague to represent him. On the request of Mr [REDACTED] (7), he did thus not hesitate to drop into absolute iniquity on judicial and moral terms. This affair had him being definitely discredited by many Monegasques and residents.

Moreover – albeit this needs verifying -, Mr NARMINO is said to have presided in personam a trial during which his lover ought to have appeared, the Englishman spoken of earlier (Cf. Supra).

What more is, some affairs, before being dealt with before the Court, not least real estate affairs, are being discussed during regular luncheons / dinners in the presence of Mr NARMINO at the REBUCHON restaurant in the Métropole. These luncheons / dinners are being organized by Mr [REDACTED] (8), the representative of the real estate agents, Mr [REDACTED] (9), a real estate agent. and by Mr [REDACTED] (10), brother to the latter and director of the [REDACTED] (11).

Regarding affairs handled at the domicile of a shady lawyer, Mr Maxime GORRA (12) [REDACTED], boulevard [REDACTED]. Oddly, the pillars of the organized dinners are, safe for Mr NARMINO, Mrs [REDACTED] (13), chartered accountant [REDACTED], wife of Mr [REDACTED] (8), as well as Mr [REDACTED] (14). As far as the people that search for “the President’s advice”, they are mainly Italians; but also This needs verifying -, Russians.

Notable is also that another player of these “arrangements” is the chartered accountant Mr [REDACTED] (15), [REDACTED], rue [REDACTED], partner with Mrs [REDACTED] (16). On the other hand, her son [REDACTED] (17) is carefully being left out of these scams. Notice has to be taken of the fact that Mr [REDACTED] (15) and Mr GORRA have been partners. Their offices were open at the [REDACTED] Center, boulevard [REDACTED] [REDACTED] in Beausoleil [France]. Since then, M [REDACTED] (15) has opened – on these locations – a SARL [French version of Limited Company, Ltd] of evaluation / assessment / forensic examination [d’expertise], the [REDACTED] (18). Moreover, both of them had regular contacts with the individuals linked to the HOBBS-MELVILLE scandal, a company that [REDACTED]. Lets also reveal that Mr [REDACTED] (18), since having become a lawyer, also has his office in said location.

Moreover, a vast real estate affair has been dealt with, boulevard des Moulins, without further detail, between Mr [REDACTED] (7) and the lawyer [REDACTED] (7 bis) [REDACTED] boulevard [REDACTED]. The real investors are maffiosi [REDACTED] (19). Many a gathering for the preparation of sales has been held in the presence of President NARMINO.

At last, the latter and Mr [REDACTED] (20) are at times invited to organized dinners, in the villa La [REDACTED], in Roquebrune [France], a villa owned by [REDACTED] (21), [REDACTED], avenue Princesse Grâce [Grace, in Monaco], owner of the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (22) [REDACTED] at [REDACTED], boulevard d’Italie [Monaco].

This is a matter of a notorious maffia guy, who represents the Maffia branch of [REDACTED] (23) for the trading with [REDACTED] (24) in [REDACTED] (25). Furthermore, [REDACTED] (21) is currently wanted in Italy by Milan’s prosecution office, in relation to a huge corruption affair, the Mediaset, in which is personally implicated the President of the Council, Silvio BERLUSCONI.

Let’s also note that Mr NARMINO cannot ignore the indictments against [REDACTED] (21).

Mediaset, of which is aware Constable [REDACTED] (26), also knows about the high position of [REDACTED] (21) within the Maffia; something that he must have informed his protector of. In spite of this, M. NARMINO advices this Maffia boss. As if that was not enough, he has not shown himself insensitive toward the flirting made by a homosexual (notorious), the son of [REDACTED] [as written] (21 and / or 27). Both of them have been seen, many times, in a one bed hotel....

Regarding the Italian secret services and its mighty SIS (Service du renseignement civil), they know, too, that the President NARMINO and [REDACTED] (21 and / or 27) meet through a powerful intermediary: former Chief Prosecutor [REDACTED] (18), the official lawyer of [REDACTED] (21 and / or 27).

3. A lavish lifestyle paid for by his friends

President NARMINO only sides with rich people. As such, he never spends a dime of his own, be it for holidays, always offered by M. [REDACTED] (7), or for his going out in the best of restaurants or for the maintenance of his boat, the [REDACTED] (28), registered in Monaco.

The purchase of said boat has been entirely financed by Mr [REDACTED] (7) and by the chartered accountant [REDACTED] (29), [REDACTED], boulevard des Moulins. What more is, he has dealt, for free, with the [REDACTED] establishments (30), SAM [Monegasque Limited Company of shareholders = Société Anonyme Monégasque], in which Mr [REDACTED] owns 20% of the shares.

Even so, the maintenance costs for the winter period are paid by Mr [REDACTED] (7) and by Mr [REDACTED] (31), the other shareholder of this SAM, domiciled in [REDACTED], avenue [REDACTED]. Notice is to be taken of the fact that many are the regulars of the port who know about this deal.

4. An explosive management of the Monegasque Red Cross?

As Secretary General of the Monegasque Red Cross, Mr NARMINO holds a position of high trust. Nevertheless, since a few months, there are rumors in town according to which important embezzlements of funds ought to have occurred to the detriment of this association.

So according to many people, a painting was given to the Red Cross by a [female] resident, who were to find it in an art gallery [commerce], where it had been put up for sale. However, and after having heard clues from this wealthy resident, that painting ought to have been delivered to this dealer by [REDACTED] (7).

Pending resolution of this affair – if there is any -, quite a few questions emerge:

Was the C.R.M. [Monegasque Red Cross – not to be confound with the Red Cross] a beneficiary, lately, of a painting?

This gift, was it ever listed on any ad hoc register? Was it ever valued ? By who? At what price?

Was there an intermediary?

Furthermore, and always according to this information, which by the way is more and more being commented , it seems that Mr [REDACTED] (7), channeled by Ltd Company [REDACTED] [as written] (32), boulevard des Moulins, is thought to be managing real estate pertaining to the Red Cross. Indeed, it is his agency that is said to make various transactions of miscellaneous goods, and through financial commissions. Herewith too, many another ask themselves the following questions:

- Is there really a reason for going through means of an agency?
- Why [REDACTED] (32)? And the comments to refer to the – known – links between Mr NARMINO and Mr [REDACTED] (7).
- Are the transactions being listed in a register ad hoc? What are the eventual percentages transferred to Mr [REDACTED] (7)?

Whatever the answer, some well informed people claim :

- that this gift of a painting did indeed take place ;
- that the [female] donor does not want to talk about it, in light of Mr NARMINO's functions
- that no register of listing of gifts is being held at the Red Cross ;

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

- That M. [REDACTED] (7) has no competence whatsoever for valuating pieces of art.

What more is, some speak about the deep embarrassment suffered by Mrs [REDACTED] (16), who is ever so connected – even in business – with Mr. NARMINO since this information has been spread.
