[Registered letter with retroactive effect]

Object : fundamental error of title within the Court's homepage – a fake Ministre of Justice; urgent request of rectification.

Mister President,

After having spoken over the telephone today with Your Registrar,

I just saw, on this 30th of January 2013, Your picture taken alongside the Director of Judicial Services of Monaco, Mister Philippe Narmino, who is currently subjected to a criminal complaint for having illegally claimed to be and acted as a minister of Justice. It is paramount for Monaco's obligations to the Council of Europe for the latter to take legal notice of the fact that Monaco is devoid of any a minister of Justice.

The Court's error : (taken from Your homepage on the 30th of January 2013)

Visite du ministre de la Justice de Monaco

25/01/2013

Le 25 janvier 2013, Philippe Narmino, Ministre Plénipotentiaire, Président du Conseil d'Etat, Directeur des Services Judiciaires de Monaco, a effectué une visite à la Cour et a été reçu par le Président Spielmann. Isabelle Berro-Lefèvre, juge élue au titre de Monaco et Erik Fribergh, greffier, ont également participé à cette rencontre

This answerable to Justice is currently under the yoke of pending criminal affairs within which he faces life in jail under article 137 of the Monegasque Criminal code, within its last paragraph. Many a Government has been warned. Indeed, I am the Editor and publisher in Sweden of BIMCAM, an acronym certified by an instruction judge as standing for Burglary in Monaco Cambriolage A Monaco. The responsible? Philippe NARMINO.

Monaco being devoid of a free press, I ask You kindly to confirm or infirm to me Philippe Narmino's quality as guest of honour as described in Monaco-Matin on the 29th of January 2013, in light of how badly this reverberates, some month prior to the deadline for Monaco to comply to GRECO's report (http://www.coe.int/t/dghl/monitoring/greco/evaluations/round3/GrecoEval3\(2011\)5_Monaco_One_F R.pdf5_Monaco_One_F R.pdf)).

Through illegal request of mutual legal assistance, the very NARMINO just happened to put into question my reports on mafia methods currently in use in Monaco. Indeed, he just had a trial to take place against myself and a third party, with refusal of access to any an information to the concerned Embassy (of Sweden, in Paris, see attached document). The police reports on Philippe Narmino, which are at the hands of the Swedish authorities, are alarming. They are at Your disposal.

« Philippe Narmino en visite à la Cour européenne des droits de l'Homme

Le directeur des services judiciaires de la Principauté, Philippe Narmino, a assisté à l'audience solennelle de rentrée de la Cour européenne des droits de l'Homme, dont il était l'un des invités d'honneur, avec Christiane Taubira, garde des Sceaux.

A l'occasion de son passage à Strasbourg, il a été reçu pour la première fois par le nouveau président de la Cour, Dean Spielmann, en présence d'Isabelle Berro-Lefèvre, juge élue au titre de la Principauté et présidente de la Première Section de la Cour. Philippe Narmino a souligné l'implication totale des juridictions monégasques dans l'application de la convention européenne des droits de l'homme et l'excellente coopération entre la Principauté et la cour de Strasbourg. Le président de la Cour européenne des droits de l'Homme a rappelé qu'il y avait très peu d'affaires pendantes contre Monaco. » (Monaco-Matin)

Whilst struggling to recognize France's Minister of Justice (Garde des Sceaux = "Guard of the Keys") [http://sv.wikipedia.org/wiki/Christiane_Taubira] on Monaco-Matin's picture above and in order to conclude, may You note that the named NARMINO has officially proclaimed through the not free press in Monaco that he in no way was to comply with Strasbourg's future decisions. This kind of from the source verified quotes are to be viewed on my website BIMCAM (Cf. infra).

Awaiting the change of the headline, with retroactive effect, Mr President,
